

AUTHORITY TO USE COPYRIGHT MATERIAL

1. Submitted herewith is a paper entitled:

Maritime non-state actors

A challenge for the Royal Canadian Navy?

By the Author(s):

David Rudd

For publication in:

Journal of Military and Strategic Studies (University of Calgary)

2. This paper is the original work of the Author(s) named above, has not been published elsewhere and will not be permitted to be published elsewhere if accepted for publication by this journal, and contains no infringing, libelous or other unlawful statements.
3. The Author(s) of this paper (hereinafter “the Work”) carried out this research on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen in right of Canada and, as such, the copyright in the Work belongs to the Crown. No provision exists for the transfer of any such Crown copyright, and it would be improper for the Author(s) to sign any document purporting to transfer the copyright to your organization.
4. However, I am authorized to provide your organization with the non-exclusive license to translate and reproduce the Work, providing that its source, the Author(s), and the Crown copyright are clearly indicated.
5. The Author(s) and the Crown may, without seeking permission from the Publisher:
- i. reproduce or publish the Work again, in any form, in whole or in part, in its draft, manuscript or final published form as it appears in the journal or proceeding;
 - ii. adapt the Work and reproduce adaptations of the Work for any purpose other than the commercial exploitation of a work similar to the original; and
 - iii. reproduce, perform, transmit and otherwise communicate the content of the Work in presentations.
6. This authorization will provide you with all the scope for action you require, but it does not effect transfer of the copyright itself.

I, the publisher, agree to the above.

I, the publisher, disagree with the above.
